

I enjoy the uplifting music and other items on KLOVE radio station on a daily basis. The station presents a program appropriate for all ages, which is in contrast to several other stations who have rather explicit songs and comedy DJ's. In a country that values free speech, I think it is good to present several options of styles. The radio station presents an evangelical Christian perspective in a respectful, kind, and encouraging fashion.